if i was a flight,
you would be my destination.
i'm coming to you,
i don't need an invitation.
if you were a doctor,
then i would be your patient.
teach me how to love,
i need a cardio operation.
i would be your getaway,
if you would be the driver.
i'll get in the car,
we can make the perfect crime.
i can steal your heart,
& you can steal mine.
& if we get caught,
then baby, i'll do all the time.

but i don't even know your name.
i've never even seen, your face.
i can't wait to meet ya, someday.

if i was a mirror,
baby you'd be the reflection.
watch you all the time,
you're the vision of perfection.
i would be the answer,
you would be the question.
show you how it's done,
cuz' baby, i don't need directions.
never get enough,
i'll develop a condition.
i can't even stop,
girl, you know you're my addiction.
so if there is a cure,
baby, i don't wanna find it.
& i won't go to rehab,
you've got me in a whining.

girl, i can't wait to meet ya.
i can't wait to meet ya, someday.

girl, i can't wait to meet ya.
i can't wait to meet ya, someday.

i've never even seen your face.
girl, i can't wait to meet ya.
i can't wait to meet ya, someday.

girl when you're closing your eyes.
girl what you think about?
baby when you're sleeping at night.
me and you,
me and you.
