Try

Tried to break it down at least a thousand times
There's an emptiness inside me when she's far away
That I can't erase and I go insane
'Til I see her face and I shout
'Cause the silence when she's gone is way too loud
Gotta get my head together 'cause I'm not okay
I'm just not the same I'm just trying to make it
She's my everything
And I

Can't stop my heart from racing
I need you here by my side
I feel the walls closing in
Baby you're saving a life
One kiss at a time
I can't live without you
I don't wanna try
You're saving a life
'Cause you're the air that I breathe
There ain't no world without you
I'm hanging on by a thread
Baby you're saving a life (saving a life)
One kiss at a time (kiss at a time)
Can't live without you
Don't wanna try
You're saving a life

You're the one that picks me up when I am down
When the trials and tribulations of life get hard
Keep inside my heart I let down my guard
You're the light in the dark
So stay
You're the reason why I make it through each day (day)
There's a storm raging inside me when she's far away
(she's far away)
That I can't escape (can't escape)
And I go insane
'Til I see her face

You're saving my life
Staring into you like a dream

Breathe into me
I'm not giving up
I'm never giving up
Because you're saving a life
I need you tonight

Baby you're saving a life
One kiss at a time
I can't live without you
I don't wanna try
Baby you're saving a life [x2]
You're saving a life
Can't stop my heart from racing
I need you here by my side
I feel the walls closing in
Baby you're saving a life
'Cause you're the air that I breathe
There ain't no world without you
I'm hanging on by a thread
Baby you're saving a life

I need you tonight [x2]
