love of my life...

it's feels like... millions parts of pieces nothing ever a (bridge)

nothing makes any since anymore...and when my world crashes down on the floor, it's broken up i need your love to put it back together mend my broken heart

(chorus)

and there you are it's like i'm staring at a missing part of me look into to your eyes and it gets hard to breath.
when everything gets crazy...you uncomplicated it's so amazing...so amazing...so amazing (when i'm
