This would be their end
They worshipped the king of all kings,
They would die by his holy words
A leader out of his mind,
He would give them strength
He told them all to have faith,
And you will have eternal life

(They could not see that he was their end)

The book of truth was their law,
They would not disagree
A cold man that bears a cross,
He would sacrifice all of them

(They were misled to believe in him)

Despite some knew the truth,
They could not tell a soul.
What could they do?

Heaven, this is the home that you wanted to have
Heaven, I know your master will pay for his sins
He promised eternal life,
If they all believed in him
Their holy words have been used,
Now they see what it's all about

(Now they have sealed their own destiny)

Despite some knew the truth,
They could not tell a soul.
What could they do?
