

Treasure Land "To Live Again"

Visit "To Live Again" on MotoLyrics.com

The heart of the world is cold
While yours is still in bloom
And it breaks without a sound
For the love can't be found

So taste the blood that runs in your veins

You're dyin', dyin'
In a world that's dyin' too
Dyin', dyin'
You don't need to live it all in vain
'Cause you know you'll live again

Born into this world
Where you struggle to stay alive
But you will not be heard
From the bed in which you lie

Beauty's in the heart of young

You're dyin', dyin'
In a world that's dyin' too
Dyin', dyin'
You'll live again, you will my friend
To live... again
