

Treasure Land "Why"

Visit "Why" on MotoLyrics.com

She had been fighting all her life for what she don't know

God in the sky wouldn't listen to her
She is a slave in the God of cocaine
When will she realize only she can stop this

When will this end?

She is a victim of this world which we live in
Do what you want do what you need
We don't care

When will this end?

Her life is fading away

Tell me crawl as I slip into your mind
I'll make your world so blue
The mirror never lies can't you see what I see Solitude surrounds you

Tell me why my dreams are never meant to be
Tell my why some of us never learn
You can't see the fire in her eyes
Say goodbye to life

She had been fighting all her life for what she don't
know

No one really asked her how she really felt
Where is the love?

Her life is fading away

She will be no more

Visit Treasure Land page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.