

Treaty Of Paris "Hello Nurse"

Visit "Hello Nurse" on MotoLyrics.com

You could be my nurse.
I'll be the patient you're saving,
Mouth-to-mouth resuscitating.
You can call me crazy, but I'm just a classic case.
It must be entertaining to see me try and use both brains.

There's so much to say about the roles we play
And there's so much at stake
I want you in the worst way (hey! )

You could be my nurse.
I'll be the patient you're saving,
Mouth-to-mouth resuscitating, mouth-to-mouth
resuscitating.

You can call me crazy, but I like the way you taste (you taste good)
Can I call you baby if I forget you name?

There's so much to say about the roles we play
And there's so much at stake, baby
(And all the kids sing it one time)

You could be my nurse.
I'll be the patient you're saving,
Mouth-to-mouth resuscitating.
You could be my nurse.
I'll be the patient you're saving,
Mouth-to-mouth resuscitating,
Mouth-to-mouth-to-mouth-to-mouth-to-mouth-to-mouth
resuscitating.

When our lips meet,
It might be the greatest thing since breathing (since breathing)
When our lips meet,
It might be the greatest thing since breathing,
Since breathing, since breathing...

You could be my nurse.
I'll be the patient you're saving,

Mouth-to-mouth resuscitating.
You could be my nurse,
Mouth-to-mouth resuscitating,
Mouth-to-mouth-to-mouth-to-mouth-to-mouth...

You could be my nurse.
I'll be the patient you're saving,
Mouth-to-mouth resuscitating.

You could be my nurse.
I'll be the patient you're saving, patient you're saving,
Mouth-to-mouth-to-mouth-to-mouth-to-mouth-to-mouth
resuscitating.
