You hide, won't fight
Avoid the daylight
Give in, won't win
No try to make it right

Why don't you stop crying
Stop your painful dying
Why don't you give your life a sense

One game, one aim
But you're always sleeping
One light so bright
In darkness you're creeping

Why don't you use your head
Step out of your warm bed
And stop being on anxious rat

Run - for your destination
Fly - to the sun
Don't give a damn what the people may say
It's like a chain on your leg
When you always look back
If you don't risk anything one day you'll pay

Don't run for cover
Don't cry alone
Make a step on your stairway
One step closer to what you live for
Don't run for cover
Don't throw away
The only chance that you got
To be the fire in a hot life you choose

No pride, no right ?
In your heart is more strength
You know, I know
Your destiny's in your hand

Now you have this time
To survive don't be blind

In this world where so many can't see

Try - to catch the key

Make - that you can see

The light of your life your way to go

It's like a chain on your leg

When you always look back

If you don't risk anything one day you'll pay

Don't run for cover

Don't cry alone

Make a step on your stairway

One step closer to what you live for

Don't run for cover

Don't throw away

To be the fire in a hot life you choose
