We woke in a storm
Blinded and wanting more
I need to buy some x-ray shades
See through the smog and haze
Surrounding the world for which I was made

And we'll walk in light for the first time

New eyes see through the lies
New eyes see through the lies
New eyes see through the lies
New eyes see through the lies
New eyes see through the lies
New eyes see through the lies
New eyes see through the lies

I want to see love
Shake earth like a snow globe
When low is high and high is low
Everyone's in the know
And we all can cross the velvet rope

And we'll walk in light for the first time

New eyes see through the lies
New eyes see through the lies
New eyes see through the lies
New eyes see through the lies
New eyes see through the lies
New eyes see through the lies
Deny your eyes, Deny your lies

New eyes see through the lies
New eyes see through the lies
New eyes see through the lies
New eyes see through the lies
New eyes see through the lies
New eyes see through the lies
New eyes see through the lies

And we'll walk in light for the first time

New eyes for a new world.
