All the oceans and the seas know the sound,
Of your beautiful voice.
And if you tell them to be calm and be still,
They have no other choice.
You put the stars in the sky and then you taught them
to shine,
They know just what to do.
Every moment's a symphony that's perfect in time,
By beautiful you.

(Beautiful you)
I can't imagine life without you.
(Beautiful you)
I can't imagine being alone.
(Beautiful you)
God, all I ever want is you.
(Beautiful you)
Just have you hold me in your arms.
(Beautiful you)

All the waterfalls know just where to fall,
Brilliant every time.
When it rains you are behind it all,
Gentle rhythm and rhyme.
Mountains high know your voice and they are ready to move,
Where you tell them to.
In all my heart I believe that power lives in me,
Because of beautiful you.

(Beautiful you)
I can't imagine life without you.
(Beautiful you)
I can't imagine being alone.
(Beautiful you)
God, all I ever want is you.
(Beautiful you)
Just have you hold me in your arms.
(Beautiful you)

Every ocean, every sea, every moment's a symphony.

Every drop of rain, every waterfall,
All the stars in the sky are so beautiful.
Every breath I breathe, every beat of my heart,
I feel so alive because of who you are.
Every day I rise, every time I see,
I'm reminded of your great love for me.
You're beautiful, so beautiful.

(Beautiful you)
I can't imagine life without you.
(Beautiful you)
I can't imagine being alone.
(Beautiful you)
God, all I ever want is you.
(Beautiful you)
Just have you hold me in your arms.
(Beautiful you)
I just want to be around you.
(Beautiful you)
I can't imagine life without you.
(Beautiful you)
There is nothing left I can't do,
(Beautiful you)
When I build my life around you.
