Just a little tear on her face
She feels like a whore a hole
She feels like a pussy a hole
Just a little tear on her face

Just a little tear in her eye
She feels like a whore a hole

She can't find no rest even in death

She feels like an object abject

Just a little tear in the heart
She can't stand the time the life
She doesn't want no fate she hates it
She feels like an object abject

She can't find no rest even in death

She's without needs without feelings
It's a living without meaning
She's without love without hate
It's a living without meaning

Flesh and blood without brain

She's without thoughts without remorse
It's a living without meaning
She'll never laugh she'll never cry
It's a living without meaning
Without
