What keeps on telling me to stay on the way I chose What keeps on giving me all the strength to carry on

Give me some time, can't sleep anymore at night
I wanna show I'm here with an aim of mine

I feel strong, but someone is crying, I know
It's so hard to find a sign of a way to go

Don't need to stone my brain, I need my head for something else
I wanna live and learn, step by step I'm going on

Send me a sign, don't wanna resign too soon
What situation will come I can't endure

I feel strong, but someone is crying, I know
It's so hard to find a sign of a way to go

Send me a sign, don't wanna resign too soon
What situation will come I can't endure
