Dead on? Disappointing
You're wrong
I'm only halfway come undone
A sting that hasn't stung, But waiting
Go on suppose me, You can't disappoint me
You've already won when I was never in you game

And we can't fall down if we don't stand
But there's no room in here to kneel
May the sun shine warm on you face
Until we meet again, God keep you
And there's no reward for good intentions
But there's a path that leads you down
May the sun shine warm on you face
Until we meet again, God keep you

All along still hoping
There's a chance of destroying any glimpse of faith
The truth is what we know to be true

And we can't fall down if we don't stand
But there's no room in here to kneel
May the sun shine warm on you face
Until we meet again, God keep you
And there's no reward for good intentions
But there's a path that leads you down
May the sun shine warm on you face
Until we meet again, God keep you
