(Chorus)

She said I took way too long coming home last night
Said I be messing with all these women
I've been doing so wrong wish I could make it right
Me and my bad decisions

(Verse)

Guess it's my fault for not believing she could love,
love me
Hard to believe I treated someone beautiful so ugly
Yes, I broke to pieces her heart
Got used to seeing her crying
Guess I went and pushed it too far
She got sick and tired of me lying

(Chorus)

She said I took way too long coming home last night
Said I be messing with all these women
I've been doing so wrong wish I could make it right
Me and my bad decisions

(Verse)

Now she's gone, gone, gone, gone
I should've listened, but I didn't
(Me and my bad decisions)
She said she move on, on, on
And now I'm tripping, I should've listened
(Me and my bad decisions)

(Verse)

Now I've got time to think of all I could've done different
Searched the whole world until I realized the one I needed
Was right there, I was tripping
Won't I, that I know you know I love you Don't I, never took the time to tell you
So I know that shit don't even matter right now
'Cause I'm the reason that your heart shattered right
now
And I know how to fuck a good thing up
And I'm about to lose your love

But that shit don't even matter right now
'Cause I'm the reason that your heart shattered right

(Pre-Chorus)

Yes, I broke to pieces her heart
Got used to seeing her crying
Guess I went and pushed it too far
She got sick and tired of me lying

(Chorus)

She said I took way too long coming home last night
Said I be messing with all these women
I've been doing so wrong wish I could make it right
Me and my bad decisions

(Bridge)

God knows I've done some wild and crazy things in my past
And I can't take nothing back
Forced to live with that
Pay the price for making bad decisions

(Pre-Chorus)

Yes, I broke to pieces her heart
Got used to seeing her crying
Guess I went and pushed it too far
She got sick and tired of me lying

(Chorus)

She said I took way too long coming home last night
Said I be messing with all these women
I've been doing so wrong (so wrong)
Wish I could make it right (but it's too late, said it's too late)
Me and my bad decisions

(Outro)

Now she's gone
And I know that I should've listened
But I, But I didn't
Me and my bad decisions
She said she move on, on, on
And now I'm tripping, I should've listened
Me and my bad decisions
(I fucked up)
No, no
(I fucked up bad)
Yes I did
Me and my bad decisions
(Ain't no way I could take that back)

Me and my bad decisions
