Songz, it's songbook, baby
Oh, oh, oh, ooh

Ride, ride, come and ride with the Prince
Come ride, ride, ride, ride with the Prince
Come ride, come ride, come ride, oh, let's go

Friday night, and I'm home just chillin' on the sofa Relaxin' and I'm so glad the week is over
I got my remote, good sack of that green
I'ma lean and smoke, goin' through my cell

For the number of a chick that I met last week
And her body ain't no joke
She picked up on the first ring
"What took you so long to call me?"

Recognized your name and number from the caller ID"
She said her room mate is gone and she all alone
Let me get your street address
Let me get dressed and hung up the phone and it's on

She want it, I want it too but I'm unprepared
And we came so close to goin' raw dog that we both got scared
And she said, "I ain't ready to have no babies"
Jumped up put my clothes back on
I was just about to get some, had to make a store run

Store run, pack of three up at the counter
Store run, be back in less than half an hour
Store run, I need protection and I'm out
Wait for me, keep it warm, I had to make a store run

Speedin', switchin' lanes, and I'm flyin
And tryin to get back to her before she changes her mind
'Cuz if I take too long, she might put her clothes back on

Henny in my system, she tipsy on that Grey Goose It's obvious what she's tryna get into

Top huggin' them curves
Got a nigga like me at a loss for words

I know she can tell that I'm wit it
Wanna get it, while inside your tee
She can tell when I'm close to her
She keep lickin her lips

She touchin and she grabbin
Oh, I'ma throw her the bone, I'ma give it to her all night long
I want it bad, oh so bad but I know that it's wrong
Here we go

She want it, I want it too but I'm unprepared
And we came so close to goin' raw dog that we both
got scared
And she said, "I ain't ready to have no babies"
Jumped up put my clothes back on
I was just about to get some, had to make a store run

Store run, pack of three up at the counter
Store run, be back in less than half an hour
Store run, I need protection and I'm out
Wait for me, keep it warm, I had to make a store run

Store run, pack of three up at the counter
Store run, be back in less than half an hour
Store run, I need protection and I'm out
Wait for me, keep it warm, I had to make a store run

All I could do is think of bein' inside you
Drivin' like I'm up out of my mind
Baby, here I come
And you can take your clothes back off

Store run, pack of three up at the counter
Store run, be back in less than half an hour
Store run, I need protection and I'm out
So wait for me, keep it warm, I had to make a store run

Store run, pack of three up at the counter
Store run, be back in less than half an hour
Store run, I need protection and I'm out
Wait for me, keep it warm, I had to make a store run

Store run, pack of three up at the counter
Store run, be back in less than half an hour
Store run, I need protection and I'm out
Wait for me, keep it warm, I had to make a store run

I know, I know, shoulda thought of this before But who would've thought that we'd end up right on the kitchen floor?
I ain't ready to have no babies, no ifs, ands, buts, or maybes
I'm tryna keep it safe, girl, ain't you heard of AIDS?
