(Jascha Richter)

If we want it we just have to choose

If we need it we don't have to lose

I see into your eyes

It's time to realize

If you want it I am here for you

If you need it and you love me too

There is no black or white

This is no sacrifice

(Chorus)

We don't have to lose this love my friend

We won't make the same mistake again

We've been restless we've been blind

We've been going out of our minds

If we want it we could try again

If we need it this could be the end

Of feeling crazy

The end of feeling sad

(Chorus)

We don't have to run

And crash into some wall

We don't have to let it go

We don't have to fall

(Chorus)

We don't have to lose
