I catch a word of
The universal rhyme
In the summertimes in the summertimes
The river flows and I wonder where it goes
Only heaven knows only heaven knows

Inpatient with the human race
Still nature shows a friendly face
And I believe in paradise on earth

But then tonight I had this dream
So horrible I had to scream
I saw the earth naked like the moon
Naked like the moon

(piano)
Inpatient with the human race
Still nature shows a friendly face
And I believe in paradise on earth

But when I saw the news today
So horrible I had to pray
Don't leave the earth naked like the moon
Naked like the moon
But even though the Cold from your still beatingnd even though the cold in your eyesmakes me freeze all the Time
