I never met another one
Who made my life so much fun
'Cause every moment I'm with you
I never know what you're gonna do

Every day you change your mind
Do something different all the time
Life is a game, you wanna play
Twenty-four hours a day

It's funny how you keep me running, going and coming
I like the feeling, it's out of control
There's no denying, you set me flying
I'm hoping you'll catch me when I fall

You drive me crazy but I don't mind
Someone like you is hard to find
I like the way you're moving around
In your world everything is upside down

Every day you change your mind
Do something different all the time
Life is a game that you wanna play
Twenty-four hours a day

It's funny how you keep me running, going and coming
I like the feeling, it's out of control
There's no denying, you set me flying
I'm hoping you'll catch me when I fall

Will you catch me when I fall?
Will you catch me when I fall?

Every day you change your mind
Do something different all the time
Life is a game that you want to play
Twenty-four hours a day, oh

You keep me running, going and coming
I like the feeling, it's out of control
There's no denying, you set me flying
I'm hoping you'll catch me when I fall

When I fall

I'm hoping you'll catch me when I fall
