Do you believe we could start again
Be the way we were, we used to be then
Am I wrong in thinking we could turn back the clock
And get back what was, get back what is lost, oh no
I never knew how much I really needed you too
And now you're gone and it's too late cos I've lost you
This is the place where we laughed
Where we danced
Where we walked in the rain
Now it's not the same
This is the place where you cried
And I wiped all the tears from your face
This is the place
Love has taken a hold over me
I was mesmerized, but now I can see
And I remember where we were on fire
Where you told me how you've never been higher, so high
I never knew how much I really needed you too
And now you're gone and it's too late cos I've lost you
(oh baby)
This is the place where we laughed
Where we danced
Where we walked in the rain
Now it's not the same
This is the place where you cried
And I wiped all the tears from your face
I really wanna hear you call my name
And tell myself that we can do it again
It should be really easy, not the end
We were made for each other
A feidn and a lover
I really wanna lose myself in you
Cause no-one lese could love you the way that I do
And every time I find somebody new That's when I discover
There's nobody other, other than you
I never knew how much I really needed you too
And now you're gone and it's too late cos I've lost you
This is the place where we laughed
Where we danced

Where we walked in the rain
Now it's not the same
This is the place where you cried
And I wiped all the tears from your face
This is the place x2
