Beast In The Light

I got no body
I got no love
I've only got what brings changes for me

I was the priest
I was the beast
But I always got so lost between the devil and god

See my road follow my rules could you join me too?

See my sins dream my dreams and see the world like me

Beast in the light
I can recognize you Beast in the light
And I learned how to fight against what you want
Beast in the light
If you bring me this evil I'll put you out of my mind
I can resist you... your beast in the light

It's easy to see your life
When you choose your side
All your desires you lost
In a cage of twisted thought's

I am not an angel
I am not a stranger
I only fight for what I can change

Feel my heart tearing in two parts
This is the new world's art

Give some hope to this nasty world
Turn all this dirt to gold

Beast in the light
I can recognize you
Beast in the light
And I learned how to fight against what you want
Beast in the light

If you bring me this evil I'll put you out of my mind
I can resist you... your beast in the light

See my road follow my rules could you join me too?

Give some hope to this nasty world
Turn all this dirt to gold
