Forgotten Time

Walking through same places
With a destiny to build
With a past to try to kill
In a new world I'm remaking me
Now I'm my own shield
Keeping me out of the fire that will reveal

Flying like wind
And spread as a good sin
With time becomes a dream
You want to realize it

In the fog of dawn
You will see, your time has come
But you cannot take so long
Don't let them make your spirit disappear

You are a runaway
Living day by day
Being the best that you can be

Breaking all the rules
Surviving all the proof
That life submits to you

[Chorus:]
Forgotten time
Forgotten life
Forgotten time
We can't give in
Forgotten time
Forgotten life
Forgotten time
We have dreams... to realize

You are not alone
We are all carrying on
We have dreams to realize
