"Goodbye"

Tonight I'll go to sleep and I'll dream of you and All the time we spent together will prove that we'll make it through.

Together we'll stand alone for now.

Tonight will be goodbye for now
Tonight will be the last time that I get to say

As autumn passes when do I see your face again
For passing time I've had to think twice wrote this song for you.

Together we'll stand alone for now.

Tonight will be goodbye for now
Tonight will be the last time that I get to say

Another day is here but you've come and gone now
Another night has passed but you'll still be there Holding on keep holding on
