It seems like you've changed from what you used to use to be (and it disappoints me)
It seems you've turned your back on everything you used to believe
And I'm sorry to see what you've turned out to be
We've come too far to say let's just walk away
I remember never to betray what you said,
I remember what you said friends are forever
Write it down if you miss me dear,
Put it down on pen and paper
And I'll see if you, if you really care Let me know if the words that are just coming out of your mouth
Are they filled with lies, the same goodbyes
I hope I die with no regrets
(We've come too far to say let's just walk away
I remember never to betray what you said,
I remember what you said friends are forever)
(Just) look at these stars tonight (they disappear)
See how they shine
We've come too far to say let's just walk away
(What you said, I remember, I remember, what you said)
We've come too far to say let's just walk away
I remember never to betray what you said,
I remember, (I remember) what you said friends are forever
