Alright, he my little running back
But he know I'm running it
He love that I'm from the bottom
I be all on top of it

Yea, he buy me Louis
I buy him Gucci sneaks
I got his homies saying I got homie
(On a leash)

I'm thinking I want this forever like Drake
'Cause I'm his nurse, and he my Dr. Dre
I'm in Bahamas drinking Nuvo straight
I told him I'll be sick if you go, stay

Just 'cause there's nobody else
That can do the things that you do
I promise I'll always be true
And when you feel the need to love
Let me be the one you're thinkin' of
But I will make it so right

Forever and ever
Baby, I will always be there for you
Boy just run to me 'cause
There'll never be another, no
There'll never be another for me
I will always be there for you, baby
(I promise)

I'm riding with him like Obama
'Cause he don't give me drama
And his bank account say comma, comma, comma
Comma, comma
I can't be no calmer
It's a honor, take him to meet my momma

'C-c-cause he the best I be all up in his chest
He undress me with his eyes when I'm getting dressed
I'd be so impressed, other niggas can't impress
These are the only words I say when I can't express

'Cause there's nobody else
That can make me feel the way you do
Forever, I'll be there for you
And when you feel you need to love
Let me be the one you're thinkin' of
'Cause I will make it so right

Forever and ever
Baby I will always be there for you
Boy just run to me 'cause
There'll never be another, no
There'll never be another for me
I will always be there for you, baby
(I promise)

When I met you on the first day
Wouldn't never knew that you'd always have a chain on my heart
But I gave you a chance, and we're moving, making plans
Now all I think about is you

'Cause of you and I been through the worst weather
And you know love can't get no better
You were everything, and everything is you
And I'm never leaving, baby I'll stay

Because there's nobody else
That can make me feel the way you do
Forever, I'll always be there for you
When you feel you need to love
Let me be the one you're thinkin' of
'Cause I will make it so right

Forever and ever
Baby I will always be there for you
Boy just run to me 'cause
There'll never be another, no
There'll never be another for me
I will always be there you
(I promise, forever)
