I told you once, I think I did
I told you once that I love you more than anything
I see you now, look in your eyes
They look through me, they look on to another side

How can you see these things and not be there, truly be there
How can I even ask you why
Thoughts run, mind flies as I ask you
Can you be there
You say "OhÃ...Ã."

You told me once, I think you did
You said youÃ¹d hold me once, once I knew more than I ever could Til that day, til that hour
I wait, lord I pray, while holding on to anotherÃ¹s arm

How can you say these things and not be there, truly be there
How can you even ask me why
Thoughts run, mind flies as you ask me
Can I be there
I say "OhÃ...Ã "

I told you once, I know I did
I told you once that all we need is honesty
Look to me, look in my eyes
Look for me and IÃ¹ll be there by your side

How can I say these things and not be there, truly be there
How can I even ask you why
Thoughts run, mind flies and I ask me
Will I be there
I say "ohÃ...Ã .stop asking"
"Stop asking why"
