Well I live a bearable life
And I see your eyes looking down at me on the ground
Well I
I live a safe ridden life
I've got to push beyond the walls that bound me keep me surround me
Well I

And you cry move up and out beyond
I tried I'm left within alone
I see the things you see in me
I see the things I want to be

You are the things that runs through
You're running through my mind
You lift me, ground me,
Keep me, surround me with you

And I can't stand to see the pain
I cry, can't hear me through the rain
What are these things you see in me
What are these things I want to be

One to another
The circle never ends
One feeds the other
And drives it on again....I cry

So true are the things that you do
What good are words when Your actions scream the facts in my Ears well

I try, I'm left within alone
I cry, I'm out here on my own
What are these things you see in me
What are these things I want to be
