Diaz:

I return to the ancient Gran and snow cathedral, Kiss the flag and the fountain so I hope you leave oh.
Care forgiveness and loose this burden I carry,
I need to pray in front of a statue of virgin mary Did a sign on the cross her eyes started bleeding
My presence with close the mouth on any eden.
I brought back believing saint like but that ain't right I'm robbin on spies like your bike you probably don't like
What you see what it be When I key I put you in misery.
When I flee heavenly as I see, there will be no changes only-Miracles for ages, the truth is outrageous, so I bring you-Through rap pages. From stages and other places where you find me at.
Surrounded by A and Rs that wanna sign my act.
I saw behind all that, cause my order came first, now I'm back cause-
I couldn't skip the curse or chase skirts.

--Chorus--

Tommy Tee:

If you drink from this fountain, you must return,
If the time has come your heart may yearn,
Away from these three you cannot turn live life firm and your soul will not Burn

If you drink from this fountain, you must return,
If the time has come your heart may yearn,
Away from these three you cannot turn live life firm
and your soul will not Burn

N-Ligth-N/Son Of Light

I took you from the holy mountain to the holy fountains.
Baptised you in the pool of light mastering the rulest flight.
My only presence life lesson finding the essence bloodstained confessions Living my impression like christ in torino, You're gathering away your life like casino.

I move through lands created by rhyme inflated by mine.
Cannasis Creater of time.
No your helpless got it wrong cause you're selfish, Scorned by the multiples of sun and the celsius,
I brought storms to your ships, word born all my lips, torn from my crip
Slip from grace earthbound to this form deliver mic miracles apocalypse Sporn
Return to the source of life, the original sin the original strife

-Chorus--

Tommy Tee:

If you drink from this fountain, you must return,
If the time has come your heart may yearn
Away from these three you cannot turn live life firm
and your soul will not Burn

If you drink from this fountain, you must return,
If the time has come your heart may yearn
Away from these three you cannot turn live life firm
and your soul will not Burn
