This is war like you ain't seen
This winter's long, it's cold and mean
[When life and death go to battle
Ain't no telling what'll happen] (x3)
It's war tonight, it's death and life

It's the kind of war you ain't never seen ever,
Soldiers getting riot homie, heads get severed
Death toll is crazy like nothing on record,
Civilians ain't safe, man, the troops might get ya
Came from the high cuz them guys gon' catch up
They never get tired, never let up
They fired up, wired up to put you on the stretcher
But is the good side tough enough? you betcha.
Yeah you got bad guys, you know they a problem
Trying to overthrow the king, yep what we call em
No life from the dark nights, no Gotham
This ain't fake death, no possum, can anybody stop them?
Tombstones everywhere, dead bodies rotting
Big glock popping, bodies still dropping
But I ain't gon' cry though, for just to get swallowed
The Father's sent his son, and the troops gon' follow

This is war like you ain't seen
This winter's long, it's cold and mean
[When life and death go to battle
Ain't no telling what'll happen] (x3)
It's war tonight, it's death and life

The son came down to the wasteland
We in a death-filled mess, he'll win, no leaving No rest til (desk heal?), the fight ain't even
And death won't be left still breathing (Get em)
The son's on the front line crossing their borders
Invading enemy land but they can't floor them
A good troop will graze him, and they ain't even force em
But God used that sin to support him
They captured the King next thing them chops rang out
General is down, the troops are like, "We out!"

The life-giver dies and the other side celebrates
But they don't know that Hell is fate, the death they'll face
They never safe if he's a beast who'd the featherweight Just when they thought they took him down he would elevate
Death could never take pride in that blow
Cuz the King beat death when he died and he rose

This is war like you ain't seen
This winter's long, it's cold and mean
[When life and death go to battle
Ain't no telling what'll happen] (x3)
It's war tonight, it's death and life

It really might seem like the war's still going
People still dying, sin is still potent
The devil's still tempting, and evil ain't slowing
Just wait until the trumpet gets blowing
The General is coming with keys in his hands
The death and hate is they'll, freeze where they stand
Cuz see they've been defeated, please understand
If they don't wanna see him, bro, the King is the man
He's a man of war, a beast on the battlefield
Obliterating all the evil forces that'll kill
Where's your sting death? Oh, you don't got it bro
Where's your victory? Oh, you've been swallowed whole
But when he's back, ain't no fighting Jehovah,
He'll toss you in a lake of burning fire and sulfur He's a titan, a soldier who will wipe away tears and our fears
And all the pain and death will be over

This is war on sin and death
The dark will take it's final breath

[When life and death go to battle
Ain't no telling what'll happen] (x3)
It's war tonight, it's death and life
