I know you're late on rent the for the 3rd month straight
And your credit cards are maxed all the way And you're lookin at me for a little relief You're lookin at me for something 9 to 5 and I'm workin nights sometimes I wonder if its worth the whole fight then im lookin at you and its all that I need to make me keep on quessing (?) bridge whatever im goin through it wont break up me and you cos we can bend and not break give and not take theres nothing worth running from cos our love is strong enough so have faith tomorrows another day chorus stop take a deep breath baby we've got time we'll be alright our love will keep us alive stop I know you're stressed and you cant sleep at night somehow we'll survive as long as there's you and I broke my heart when you're car broke down and you're celluar wouldn't even dial out and nobody would stop no not even a cop so you're wound up the highway walking through every storm there's an open sky could you see when you looked in my eyes and I ran you a bath and I made you laugh and we stayed up all night talking repeat bridge and chorus there aint no problems there aint nothing we cant solve we can fix anything make it right with our love baby stay by my side and I promise inside baby girl your crazy days and bad times and worries will be far behind

repeat chorus x 2
