"Abyss Within My Soul"

Visit "Abyss Within My Soul" on MotoLyrics.com

The dead are never gone
I can feel them all around me
I am drowning in an ocean
How I wish that you would join them

I am burning
I seek revenge
My eyes are blind
My rage is chaste

Rise
Abyss within my soul

The dead are never gone
I can always hear their voices
These dark waters will consume me
And the sun shall never rise

Every nail piercing my flesh
Manifests your helplessness
Die you shall

I am Lazarus
Arisen from my tomb
My limbs are trembling
My hands are bleeding

The day of demise
Rise
Abyss with my soul
