I'm light years away
You can't change me
I'm passive and cold
Just waiting
I've seen the future's threatening sky through dreams
at night
I've seen the dogs of war let loose I've seen the blood-red sky

Night
A promise of rain
Divided we stand
A distance I can't take anymore

In the cage in the corner
I'm safe from the beast
Once you wanted me, the image of me
I've played that game a million times and see the signs I've played that game from A to Z I've lost a million times

Wounds are open again
Divided we fall
I'm bleeding from the dark of my soul

Burning in water
Drowning in fire
