Oh, babe, your love you told
You'll love so true
Listen to me, babe,
I more felt it than you.

Go need somebody on your mind
You go need somebody on your mind
Yet you belle is in mine
Too real and hard to find.

Go need somebody on your mind
You go need somebody on your mind
You go need somebody on your mind

I'll take you for a ride in my Tarotplane
I want to take you for a ride
In my Tarotplane
I want to take you for a ride
In my Tarotplane

You're gonna fly
You're going to fly
You're gonna fly

Listen to me, babe
I gonna tell it to you
You gonna need used somebody in your mind
To play these, belle.
Give me mine
But she's playing hard to find
You gonna need somebody on your mind
You got eyes in the riders
Razor in the clay
Keep me worried in all night and all day

You gonna need somebody on your mind
You gonna need somebody on your mind
You gonna need somebody on your mind
I gonna need somebody on my mind
