"I Can Breathe"

We used to be so certain
we used to know it again
But now we run in circles
And we get lost along the way

And nights forever falling
And tangled in the haze
But in the light of dawn
We watch it burn away

So long as I can breathe
It's you who shakes me
So long as I can breathe
You're still the one who wakes me

So long as I can breathe
It's you who shakes me
So long as I can breathe
You're still the one who wakes me

So if we're tired of trying
And we'll forget the days
When nothing came before us
And know when things could change

Cause when there's smoke, there's fire
Im hearing in the grave
There's still a spark in us
Hold on to yesterday

So long as I can breathe
It's you who shakes me
So long as I can breathe
You're still the one who wakes me
