I'm the little shopkeeper,
And I'd like to welcome you
Take a seat and relax,
'cause you'll take a Painride soon

Sadistik discotheque of denied desires
Where pain and pleasure go undivided
What a great smile! Allow me to open it wide.
Little incisions here and there, the death is near, you fear nothing.
Fear of god has been removed in the little shop of scalpels.
Such silky skin! It must be hot, shall I peel it off?
Ah, you've find you're favourite thrill
Excellent choice, You had an eye for pain
This will take the other one as well
And many other parts too...

We have exchanged faith into something more concrete, well pain is abstract, but the feeling is real.
