Shouting, swearing, and laughing
Tin can, Michael, Seaweed, and me
Hot sun celebratin'
Seven million people on the beach

We got the world on our shoulders
We got our lives in our hands
We got that fire in our fingers
Oh, we got the plans

Maybe we will try to change the world today
We know what to do
Maybe we'll just lay here in the sun all day
Maybe we will try to change the world

Make love not war, I heard someone say
With his mouth full of mouth, here at English Bay
What are we fightin' for, he sings out loud
But there's no fightin' here, it's a peaceful crowd

Maybe we will try to change the world today
And maybe we'll just lay here in the sun
It don't matter much either way
But maybe we will try to change the world
Maybe we will try to change the world

Fight for freedom
Fight for freedom
Break the rules, you don't need 'em
Fight for freedom

No one will believe us but we know it's true
There are big important things that we will do

Fight for freedom
Fight for freedom
Break the rules, you don't need 'em

Fight for freedom
Fight for freedom ...
