"Live From The Moon"

It was clear in the morning and faded by noon
All the colours were different and I'd forgotten the tune
You know sometimes I feel like I'm live from the moon
And sometimes I don't feel at all

I've been waiting for something at 5th and despair
Holding my breath and gulping for air
You know someone just told me that life isn't fair
But I don't think I know what he means

Live from the moon
Brought to you live from the moon
Everything stops for a moment or two
When you're live from the moon

There's songs of the Rockies ablaze in my ear
Six weeks of laundry piled up with my gear
Sometimes I just wanna get out of here
But I don't even know where I am

Live from the moon
Brought to you live from the moon
Everything stops for a moment or two
It's a strange sensation
Suspended animation
Brought to you live from the moon

It was clear in the morning and faded by noon
All the colours were different and I'd forgotten the tune
You know sometimes I feel like I'm live from the moon
And sometimes I don't feel at all
