I'm here to tell the world about my baby
The best looking woman in the world
I can't believe she loves me
But she's my girl
Believe me, I'm crazy about her body
I'm impressed by her mind
She's got a heartful of love
And a face that's custom designed

Oh, she's so sweet
That the bees leave their honey
And crawl at her feet
She's so nice
And she's mine {all mine, all mine}

Last night she apprehended a young man
In her room with petty theft on his mind
When she turned on the light
She struck that poor boy blind
Believe me she's such a compassionate woman
She just asked him for the money back
Then she gave him a kiss
And he died of a heart attack

Oh, she's so sweet
That the bees leave their honey
And crawl at her feet
She's so nice
And she's mine {all mine, all mine}
And she's mine ...

No there ain't another woman like my baby
The sun shines wherever she goes
A collection of perfection
From her head down to her toes

Oh, she's so sweet ...
