We sat in the parking lot, watching the planes
Pouring our hearts out in the pouring rain
You said be careful, I want this to be right
I said don't worry, we got all night

How could we ever know
Where this all would go
Somethin' hit me and it hit me hard
When I let down my guard

True love
I can't believe
True love
It's got a hold on me
You and me all of our lives

We sat in the parking lot, making our plans
Holding our lives in the palms of our hands
Some of the pieces are missing or gone
We will survive if this love carries on

You are the only one
I need you like the Earth needs the Sun
Got this feelin' and I've got it bad
It's like nothin' I ever had

True love
Got a hold on me
True love
That's the way it should be
You and me all of our lives

You can't play at love
Who said it was a game
You can't walk away, ignore the pain
It's gonna knock you down if you get in it's way

True love
Got a hold on me
True love
That's the way it should be

You and me all of our lives

True love

You know when somethin's broken

True love

You hold me when I'm gone

True love

We dream our dreams together

True love

We built this bridge I'm standing on

True love

You're the river that washes over me

True love

That carries me to shore

True love

You are the room that shelters me

True love

My window and my door

True love
