oh man look what the cat drug in its got the dress oh the colors on that i gave my one true love on oh man look what the wind blew home never had this much stimulation til her low down elavation but oh don't look in those eyes bluer than blue
rules on the rise
and if i wear apathy's crown
don't call me high
it's a long a way down oh what terrible things she shows i'm overwhelmed by rumors this high and overcome by lows oh what use is it to pretend that i have the strength for this anymore this is all in the world that she lives for but oh don't look in those eyes
and if wear apathy's crown
it's a long way down
i would suppose that i'm not the only one one never knows and i've got a feeling she's been sleepin with the whole wide world (3x)
oh don't look in those eyes
it's a long way down.
