Aaron turned forty years old,
Today is Aaron's Birthday
His age it started to show
His thinking started to change
Four decades ago
That's when he started his wait
For all the things he thought
That he'd own
Believin it's never too late

But he ain't got the nice house yet
The nice car yet, the cool job yet
The hot woman yet,
Nothin' he said he'd get
Aaron turned forty years old...

Aaron likes silver and gold
He likes Christina Applegate
He likes his cigars hand rolled
He even learned to meditate

But he ain't got the big break yet
The respect
The good luck yet
Nothin' he thought he'd get
Not even a fuckin' pet
Aaron turned forty years old...

He ain't that old after all, been waitin' for luck so long
