You came out kicking and screaming today
Your family excited by the news
Greeted by the smiles and the kisses parade
Then newborn baby gets the blues, baby gets the blues

Sent you off to try and learn today, in a big brick building called "school"
But all you wanna do is run and play, run and play is all you wanna do
So how do you like youth?

How do you like, how do you like, how do you like, how do you like youth?

Time to get up and get a job today, you don't have any excuse
You made your bed now make your way, forty more years of abuse
So how do you not lose?

How do you not, how do you not, how do you not, how do you not lose?

You joined the lightening in the storm today, you broke all of physics rules
Supernatural alive now wouldn't you say?
Wouldn't you say your supernatural?

Supernatural... supernatural... supernatural... supernatural...
