You've always been such a big thing to me
Since the day I laid these eyes on you
I was so sure that you were the real one
And it turned my tainted heart so pure

Love doesn't last forever
A disheartened man once spoke the truth
But if truth hurts to the point of breaking down
I'd wish I'd never never gone through my youth

Everything she wore (was)
Every everything she wanted

You like to take hearts like a collection
Like dresses for society parties
But you never ceased to wear me out
And it made you look like a beggar for cheap tea

You can't always get what you want
The stones sang in painful history
But if I only lived in their era
I'd never never never have given my heart so easily

Everything she wore (was)
Every everything she wanted
Everything she wore (was)
Every everything she wanted

Love doesn't last forever
A disheartened man once spoke the truth
But if truth hurts to the point of breaking down
I'd wish I'd never never gone through my youth

Everything she wore (was)
Every everything she wanted

Ooohhh never never know how much she broke me
Till a murder of crows took what's left of me

You can't always get what you want
The stones sang in painful history
But if I only lived in their era

I'd never never never have given my heart so easily

Everything she wore (was)
Every everything she wanted
Everything she wore (was)
Every everything she wanted...
