Summer ends with the colors fading when
The rain drops all the love away again
Heartache was an understatement, and Letting it go was too much to take it in
I'm so through with the trust issues
'Cause loving you was nothing new, and
No matter what the broken promise is
We both know what our only option is
And we were so in love that I
Just can't even begin to say
How much I would have given up
To have you in our wonder age
I know that it will take practice
But I'll hold back if I want to have this Quality love, but it felt so low-fi
And this I've never dealt with, so I...

Push 'till it turns to dust
Love 'till it burns too much
With my body aflame
You'll know that you are loved

Push 'till it turns to dust
Love 'till it burns too much
With my body aflame
You'll know that you are loved

And I keep going, I keep on moving
I can't stop for a love so fluid
I can't help but to feel so stupid
But the truth is that our love was elusive
New chick, but I won't forget her
Two sides to a broken picture
Memories just don't depict her
I know I'll get hurt but my heart is with her
Stop, wait, what to do
I can't not be in love with you
I just don't know what is true
'Cause how I feel is something new
It makes no sense for us to pretend we've
Loved enough to not feel empty
I've given all I had to give

To keep our love alive, and then we...

Push 'till it turns to dust
Love 'till it burns too much
With my body aflame
You'll know that you are loved

Push 'till it turns to dust
Love 'till it hurts too much
With my body aflame
You'll know that you are loved, yeah

That you are loved
That you are loved

Give you all of me
You are all I need (That you are loved)

Give you all of me
You are all I need (That you are loved)

Give you all of me (That you are loved)
You are all I need (That you are loved)

Give you all of me (That you are loved)
You are all I need (That you are loved)

And I will follow you till you say that it's enough
And I will give you all of me and cover you with love
