We were so young and only wanted to live it up Going strong and never thought about giving up
It wasn't real enough, it was a little rushed
An open heart and she certainly couldn't fill it up Watching and waiting with dedication to make her quit
I made the mistake again playing with this relationship
Our love was flavorless, no reason to savor it
A favorite love, but when we're making it she ain't convinced
Just waiting, but patience wasn't the way to go
And not saying shit really couldn't have made her go
I never gained control, I only played the role
I then became a certified heart-breaking pro

Fade away inside (Oh you probably know it baby)
Away to hide (Oh you probably know it)
I was never strong enough to love someone past giving up
Afraid to stay this time, and (Oh you probably know it)
Don't you

Oh you probably know it
Oh you probably know it, baby

I can tell where this is going, we had our separate motives
Open to moving along though I could never show it Was time to throw it (away) I just can't control that Our love was out of focus and (oh you probably know it)
Keep us apart and we'll probably figure this out
That sex was really all that this relationship was about
And she became so meddlesome, now everything is said and done
She wanted to still be my girl when I just need a better one
I just don't think falling in love this young is the best to do
And it just won't take that much at all for the restless youth to accept this truth
Yeah, and with her there's nothing left to do I've gotten all I want from this relationship except for you

Fade away inside (Oh you probably know it baby)
Away to hide (Oh you probably know it)
I was never strong enough to love someone past giving
up
Afraid to stay this time, and (Oh you probably know it)
Don't you

Oh, you probably know it don't you
Yeah, and oh you probably know it don't you

We were so young and only wanted to give it up Going wrong, I never could have commit to us I felt my time was wasted, I felt a little hate, but Being friends is all I want so you can either leave or take it

Fade away inside (Oh you probably know it baby)
Away to hide (Oh you probably know it)
I was never strong enough to love someone past giving
up
Afraid to stay this time, and (Oh you probably know it)

Fade away inside (Oh you probably know it baby)
Away to hide (Oh you probably know it)
I was never strong enough to love someone past giving
up
Afraid to stay this time, and (Oh you probably know it!)
