What ever happened to the golden rule
Were they just words written down by some fool
How easily the world does forget
A life of hate always ends in regret

Look out your window what do you see
Pride and prejudice still hanging from a tree
How many years will it take to be clear
Of generatons of inherited fear

Out of time out of sight out of mind
Can you hear the mission bells chime
Too many people buried in the sod
Why do you kill in the name of god

Don't lose hope
It could come together soon
Just like the time
They put a man on the moon

Ah you call him by so many different names
I got a feeling it's all one in the same
Muslim christian hindu or jew
Blood is blood red is red yours is too
