(Stephen Stills)

You see, it's my thing

To be part of someone

As a true friend is part of me

You know that there's so much

Oh, little girl, we've got to tell each other

About the whole world

And most especially one another, oh yeah, all right

And you know, and you know?

Chorus:

And it's hard, yes it is

It's hard, yes it is

And I wonder

I wonder could it be a dream?

And you know that the self made man, babe

Is truly shallow

He knows he's no one

But who he wants to be

So while you still sing, baby

You got to tell me, baby

Is it your thing to be part of anyone?

Anyone, anyone

Chorus (x2)

And it's hard, yes it is

It's hard, yes it is

And I wonder

I wonder if it's a dream

And it's now, children, could it be a dream?
