I watched you throw it all away that night,
Right there I knew a star burnt out,
Right there I knew that I would have to pull you back,
Or knock you back down to the ground.

Falling,
BACK, again,
Falling,
Wicked friend.

I bet you think that you will never faid,
Until you realize you're alone,
But then you wonder what's ahead of you,
You've got no place to call your own.

Falling,
BACK, again,
Falling,
Wicked friend.

But then you wonder what it's like on down the road,
All by yourself, all by yourself,
Everything you had was taken from you,
Now you're by yourself, all by yourself.

Falling,
BACK, again,
Falling,
Wicked friend.
