

Stole Your Woman "Boundward Home"

Visit "Boundward Home" on MotoLyrics.com

So take a look around at the cracks in the streets
This ain't the city that we live
We drive for hours through the night
And get to a place we want to leave
But this is what we wanted
Not likely to become much more, we're ordinary
And now that we're here I don't want to leave
Was a lie I just had to believe
But this is what we asked for
Wait for me don't leave me here
It makes me sick 'cause the skies clear
I have to make it back to LA
Home - the place that we're headed
Home - Some times you want to get back...
Home - I can't wait to make it...
So take a look to the west where the sun always sets
It leads back to the place we live
I miss my dog, I miss my bed,
I miss my friends I just want to leave
But this is what we wanted
Not likely to become much more, we're ordinary
We drive for hours through the night
I hope we finally make it home
And this is what we asked for

Visit Stole Your Woman page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.