The Consumer, they call us,
We're the people that buy
While everyone else is out to sell
Some kind of merchandise
We run to the boss and tell him,
We need a bit more gold
Some tax deductions later,
And we still wind up in the hole.

Oh, yes we are the people
Running in the race,
Buying up the bargains in the old marketplace,
Another sale on something,
We'll buy it while it's hot
And save a lot of money spending money we don't got
We'll save a lot of money spending money we don't got

The Consumer they call us,
We always get a fair shake
We buy a fridge that doesn't freeze,
And a stove that doesn't bake
We can't buy nothing lasting
'less we get that raise in pay
And they'd only charge more for the things
That cost us less today

The Consumer, they call us,
We're fussy what we eat.
We look at the price of the T-bone steak,
And buy hamburg meat-
In all those fancy packages
They take down from the shelf-
They're always full of good fresh air
When they're not full of nothing else.

Oh, yes we are the people
Running in the race,
Buying up the bargains in the old marketplace,
Another sale on something,
We'll buy it while it's hot
And save a lot of money spending money we don't got

We'll save a lot of money spending money we don't got

The Consumer they call us,
When the man comes in the door
To give us a deal on the vacuum,
If we buy a rug for the floor
And how do we pay to finance
When the monthly bills arrive?
They just send down the bailiff
To repossess the car we drive...

The Consumer is what they call us,
We're always deep in debt.
From buyin drawers in discount stores
To fixin the T.V.set.
We go to the bank for the money,
And sign for another loan,
And pray the Lord doesn't see us stop
In the tavern half-way home.

Oh, yes we are the people
Running in the race,
Buying up the bargains in the old marketplace,
Another sale on something,
We'll buy it while it's hot
And save a lot of money spending money we don't got
We'll save a lot of money spending money we don't got

Oh, yes we are the people
Running in the race,
Buying up the bargains in the old marketplace,
Another sale on something,
We'll buy it while it's hot
And save a lot of money spending money we don't got
We'll save a lot of money spending money we don't got
