The hardest thing in the world

Holland [?] it don't please
I never wanted to leave
Searching for a perfect day
It never happens that way - ahey hey hey

I'm sick and tired and so obscene
Will heaven help me be clean?
Searching for a perfect day
It never happens that way - ahey hey hey

Cut away, I know your world wants you around [?]

You never heard a word I said
It's very simple to me
That if you knew you wouldn't say
It never happens that way - ahey hey hey

And the impression I get
As the story unfurls:
That you're the hardest thing in the world

Cut away, I know your world wants you around

What you feel might not be
It seems softer [?] to me
I cannot climb to touch your spire
I'm getting higher and higher

Cut away, I know your world wants you around
The hardest thing in the world
